

Allie Viola Rollins

September 19, 1930 - March 10, 2013

Allie Viola Rollins age 82 of Noble passed away Sunday, March 10, 2013 at Norman Regional Hospital after an extended illness. She was born on September 19, 1930 at home east of Noble. She was the oldest child of three children born to Nolan Orville Williamson and Ina Lee (Geno) Williamson. Allie grew up in Noble and attended Noble schools graduating in 1949. She later met a young man who grew up in the Ladd community by the name Roy Lee Rollins. They were married on March 25, 1949 and together raised nine children. Allie lived in the Noble community for most of her life. She worked tirelessly as a homemaker, wife and mother as well as working outside of the home. In her early years she worked for Cassidy and Geraldine Wright in Norman. Then for 23 years she worked as a housekeeper for the University of Oklahoma, retiring in 1990 as supervisor. After retiring she enjoyed staying at home to help take care of a grandson and other extended family members. Allie loved having family get-togethers and spending time watching her favorite sports teams. She was an avid O.U. football and men and women's basketball fan. She also was a Texas Ranger fan and lately an OKC Thunder fan.
