“ It was always "Hester Ann" for me. She had great easy (loud?) laugh, and I loved talking politics with Hester Ann. She was a great help and friend to my mother (her aunt). I will miss her, but I will surely remember her. I think Hester Ann would be pleased to know I still have a vivid mental picture of James breaking a horse at the old family place, and my vivid picture of her will be her laughing (at me, I think) while talking politics.

“ I have thought of Ann since I heard she passed away. I still can't believe it. I have memories of her back to when I was 18. I am so glad I got to work closely with her again the last years of my employment. I ALWAYS enjoyed seeing Ann. She was so smart, so helpful, so joyful, she was a friend. She reminds me how short life is. Good bless all of Ann's family on your loss of a true treasure
