“ We all lost such a special person. My heart goes out to her whole family. Annie was so special from the day I met her in 1963. We immediately became best friends. She was a person that you knew you could always count and depend on. She was the sweetest, funniest, kindest most generous person I know. She would keep me laughing with her own brand of the English language, she was so cute and funny and had no idea she was being so! Just loved that about her. She was always the first to laugh at herself and take you right along with her. She was always giving and once she gave me a teaspoon, it was engraved with the quote, " You Will Always Be My Friend (You Know Too Much)." She was a very special person to my husband and I she will be greatly missed. If we truly reunite in Heaven I know she was sorry to leave us here, but I bet she is giving Ruby a huge hug right now. We love you Annie

“ So very sorry for any one that knew Annie, especially her family. She was the sweeter, funniest most generous person I know. If she knew you were in need she was the first one there to help. We were 14&16 when we met. We were partners in crime..... She once gave me a tea spoon that said, "You Will Always Be My Friend (You Know TooMuch.) She was a born match maker, she introduced me to my Jim My now husband in 1975. We will both miss this wonderful lady very much!! Love you Annie!!!
