They made their home wherever the ministry called them, and were blessed with three children. Arlene and Rev. Pounds lead churches in Verden, Savanna, Spiro, Rose Hill, and even Bennettsville, South Carolina where they started a church from the ground up. After losing her beloved husband, Arlene found love again with Rev. Louis Crump and the two were married on December 12, 1981. Arlene made her home in Oklahoma City for a time, and has lived in Ardmore the past five years.

Arlene's life was devoted to her family and serving the church.
