

Beverly Ann Weese

August 21, 1941 - November 30, 2012

Virgil Blake Guess, age 70 of Rosedale, passed away Sunday, December 2, 2012, at his home. Virgil was born November 20, 1942 in Fresno, CA, to Virgil Emmit Guess and Margie (Cole) Guess. He was raised in the Fresno area and attended school there. Virgil spent much of his life traveling all over the United States scrapping precious metals. He traveled by bus and at one time in a Volkswagen wagon pulled by horses. Virgil loved animals and especially horses. Virgil was very gifted and talented and sort of a 'Jack of all Trades'. He married his longtime girlfriend Misti Shae Weaver on February 27, 2010 in Purcell. Virgil was a kind hearted man and always willing to help someone in need. He cherished his family and especially his children and grandchildren. He loved listening to good ole country music and his favorite band was the Highwaymen. He will be dearly missed! He was preceded in death by: His parents, Virgil & Margie Guess; His dear uncle, Earnest Guess and His brother. Virgil leaves behind: His wife, Misti of the home; His children, Emmit Guess of Tulsa, John Maxwell Stohl of Norman, Kimmie Guess of CA, John Marie Sthol and husband Jimmy of Lindsay, OK and John Maria Sthol and husband Rickie Gordon Bowen of AL; Step children, Twila Davis of Wayne, William Davis of Purcell, Steven Weaver of Purcell and Scotty and Michael Weaver, both of Wayne; 15 grandchildren and host of other family and friends. Memorial Service is scheduled for 1:00 P.M. Saturday, December 8, 2012, at the Wilson-Little Funeral Home Chapel in Purcell.
