

Bill Ray Law

November 24, 1942 - October 11, 2020

Bill Law, age 77 of Lexington, passed away Sunday, October 11, 2020. Billy Ray Law was born November 24, 1942 in Anadarko, OK. His parents were Leroy and Anna Law. Bill was raised in Anadarko and attended school there, graduating with Warrior Class of 1960. Bill served in the Army National Guard before starting a job with the Bureau of Reclamation. He traveled the United States, building and repairing dams, and often recalled his time working on Lake Meredith Dam in the Texas panhandle. Bill returned home to Oklahoma, settling in Anadarko, where he started his first business opening a cabinet shop. He also opened another business as a trim carpenter. Bill married Karen Hagood on December 5, 1975 in Norman, and they purchased an acreage and made their home there. The ultimate entrepreneur, Bill owned and operated a variety of construction businesses throughout the years. He was never afraid of taking chances and his drive and determination served him well in business. Bill's mind was always at work. He invented a golf ball dispenser and fire sprinkler system, and secured patents for some of his work. He was a hard worker and a great provider; a loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend. He will be dearly missed!

He was preceded in death by: his son, Joel Law; His parents, Leroy and Anna Law and brother, Ronnie Law.

Bill is survived by: his wife, Karen Law of the home; son, Jon Law of Galva, KS; Daughter, Brianna Blackwell and husband Shad of Wayne; Sister, Kaye Glazener and husband Clyde of Fort Worth, TX; Grandchildren, Derrick, Dakota, Jayden and Jysen; Great grandchildren, Logan and Arwen; several nieces and nephews and a host of other family and friends.
