

Bill Shelton

December 1, 1931 - January 2, 2025

Bill Shelton, age 93 of Norman, passed away Thursday, January 2, 2025, at the Norman Veterans Home. Bill Paul Shelton was born December 1, 1931 in Okla. City, OK to T.J. Shelton and Clara Belle (Parker) Shelton. He was raised primarily in Okla. City where he attended school, graduating from Capitol Hill High School. He married young, and to this union, daughter Billie and son Mike were born. Bill spent his life managing and owning roofing and construction services. However, for a brief time he sold SafeGuard Bookkeeping Systems before returning to his own roofing and construction business, Shelton Construction. He was an avid sports fan, and especially of his OU Sooners. He was a standout pitcher and played competitive men's softball in the OKC area spending several years at Sooner and Wheeler Ball Parks. He loved singing in men's quartets especially Barber Shop quartets. He was a member of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA). He later married Mary (Robinson) Martin. He was a natural numbers guy, looked forward to coffee with his buddies and he loved his dogs and cats. He will be dearly missed!

He was preceded in death by: his parents, T.J. and Clara Belle Shelton and his son-in-law, Lee Capps.

Bill is survived by: his wife, Mary Shelton of the home; children, Billie Capps,

Mike Shelton and wife Leesa, Kendra Nichols and husband Jon, Kathryn Childers and husband Brian and James Martin and wife Fong; 9 grandchildren, Andrew and wife Laura, Bradley and wife Makenzie, Blake and wife Katy, Joey and wife Penny, Cara and husband Todd, Josiah and wife Caytlin, Katelyn and husband Matthew, Mason and Karstyn; 10 Great Grandchildren; Michael, Keagan, Kash, Kypton, Kymber, Theo, Zeke, Samson, Adaline and Carter; several nieces and nephews.
