

Bobbye Jean Collins

November 23, 1940 - March 29, 2013

Bobbye Jean Collins age 72 of Tuttle, passed away peacefully Friday, March 29, 2013 in Oklahoma City. She was born on November 23, 1940 in Oklahoma City. Bobbye was the oldest of five children born to Harlon Brown and Lois Pauline (Hunter) Brown. She grew up in the OKC area attending five different schools before graduating. She enrolled at U. S. Grant High School her sophomore year and later graduated with the class of 1959. After H.S. she started working at George Farha Toy Company where she met the love of her life, Jack Collins. They were married on June 12, 1960 in OKC and lived in the OKC area for three years. In 1963 they moved to the Tuttle area where they made their home and have a residence to this day. Bobbye worked tirelessly as a wife and helpmate, homemaker and mother. She raised two children and worked side by side with Jack in all of their business endeavors including dairy farming, operating a daycare, trucking and operating a warehouse distribution business as well as many other endeavors. For a period of her life she spent more time at home while raising her children and also running a cake business. In her younger years Bobbye enjoyed riding motorcycles, doing water sports, roller skating, playing basketball and bowling. As the years passed, her focus shifted to hobbies such as sewing, reading and spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Above all Bobbye's number one interest and focus was on God. She was a faithful Christian and a member of the Tuttle Church of Christ where she served by teaching children's Bible class for most of her life. She shared her love for God with all her family and those around her impacting their lives in a positive way. She was an amazing example of what striving to be like Christ truly means. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
