“ I would be remiss if I didn't link this touching tribute and photo about your precious one. Perhaps you've already seen this once or twice already; I would think so, but I couldn't take the chance that it was missed by the family. I know it's been many years now, but she is still an inspiration, and your wonderful life story above touches me further, knowing that she is living at the feet of Jesus right now. God 's amazing blessings on all of you.
