

Butch Fox

April 18, 1945 - January 15, 2024

Floyd Harmon Fox age 78 of Purcell, passed away at his home on January 15, 2024. Floyd Fox was born to Haskell and Reba Mae Fox on April 18, 1945. He was the 6th of 10 children born in Purcell, OK where he lived his entire life. Floyd was nicknamed "Butch" by his dad at an early age, most people never knew his real name. Butch attended Purcell schools and loved sports and cars.

After dating for three years he married his high school sweetheart, Patricia on June 29, 1963. In 2023, they celebrated 60 years of marriage. Butch and Pat would continue to work and live in Purcell, where they had four children, 1 girl and 3 boys, Pamela, David, Bruce, and Danny. Butch was a family man, and that was good 'cause with four kids and many siblings, he stayed busy. He enjoyed supporting his kids in their activities and did the chains at football games for over 20 years. He recalled making memories with good friend Brent Bacon and others doing this. Butch also had a passion for working on and rebuilding cars. He shared his knowledge with his boys as he worked with them in rebuilding their first trucks. Butch has had several jobs along the way including Connor's Funeral Home and Ambulance (Now Wilson-Little), a full-service gas station, and Bacon's wrecker service where he worked with four generations of the Bacon family, and became like family himself. He went on to join the Purcell Fire Department and served as a firefighter and fire inspector for 20 plus years. When Butch retired, he continued with his passion for old cars. He would work on, rebuild, and show many over the years. He had many friends that would work along side him in his shop.

Butch and Pat, the love of his life, his best friend, and soul mate, enjoyed doing life together. They shared many memories over the years. The latest being going to estate sales. He said it was fun to see what others treasured and to see what he and Pat would find too interesting to pass up.

Butch had a saying he lived by- Treat others the way you want them to treat you. Butch was a friend to many, and many knew they could count on him to be fair and honest. If you didn't want to hear the truth, don't ask. He said if you do this, then you'll be okay.

Butch was preceded in death by his parents, Haskell and Reba Mae Fox. Five brothers Leroy, James Edward, Jerry, Glen and Darrell and three sisters Francis, Dorothy, and Brenda.

He is survived by his wife Patricia Fox of the home, and his children Pam Fox, David Fox, Bruce Fox and wife Kim, and Danny Fox and wife Heather.

“ I'm so very sorry to read in the paper Butch had passed. Butch and Pat are hands down my favorite estate sale shoppers. I'm sure going to miss haggling and giving him a hard time. I'll miss the hard time he gave me as well. Sending you all love.
