

Cara Renbarger

August 26, 2018

Cara L. Renbarger, age 53, of Lexington, passed away Sunday, August 26, 2018, at the Norman Regional Hospital. Cara Lee Kidder was born October 26, 1964 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, the 2nd of 3 daughters born to Wesley Allen Kidder and Nancy Lou (Boon) Kidder. She was raised in Tulsa and attended school there, graduating from Nathan Hale High School in 1982. Cara then attended NEO in Miami for a couple of years where she was a member of the Golden Norsemen Cheer squad. She transferred to Oklahoma State before graduating with her BS from Missouri Southern. While in college, she met a young man named Randy Renbarger. They fell in love and were later married. In January of 1990, they settled near Lexington where together they raised their children, son Kyle and daughter Chelsea. Cara worked in Social Work for the State of Oklahoma for many years. She loved her work, but her greatest joy was being a mother. She cherished her kids, and lived each day for them. In recent years, Cara became ill, but she never missed an opportunity to encourage others. She was a woman of great faith and a member of the First Baptist Church in Lexington.

She was preceded in death by:

Her parents, Wes and Nancy Kidder and

Her sister, Teresa Lynn Stafford.

Cara is survived by:

Her son, Kyle Renbarger of Lexington and
Daughter, Chelsea Renbarger of Yukon;
Sister, Kathy Bell and husband Russell of Gillette, WY and
A host of other family and friends.

Funeral Services are scheduled for 10:00 A.M. Thursday, August 30, 2018, at the First Baptist Church in Lexington. Burial will follow at the Lexington Cemetery. Send online condolences @ wilsonlittle.com
