

Carnelia Lee Amos

September 10, 1934 - January 12, 2013

Carnelia Black Amos age 78 of Noble, passed away Saturday, January 12, 2013 at Sunset Estates Nursing Home in Purcell. Carnelia was born on September 10, 1934 in Calumet, OK. Her parents were Clovis Alexander May and Elsie Lee (Crews) May. Carnelia grew up a farm girl in the Corbett community east of Lexington and attended the Corbett and Lexington schools. On September 8, 1951, she married Don Black. Together they made their home on a small acreage in the Little Axe community and raised four children. Carnelia loved living in the country where she could raise farm animals and grow a garden. She was a wonderful homemaker and provider, she often helped Don in his painting business and volunteered at her children's school. After Don passed away in 1991, Carnelia later met and married Bob Amos. They were married on Nov. 17, 1995 and made their home in Noble. Carnelia never lost her love for animals and for many years enjoyed raising goats, birds and other farm animals. She also enjoyed going to garage sales, gardening, quilting, cooking and working with ceramics. She mainly enjoyed staying at home and babysitting her grandchildren. She was preceded in death by:
