

Charlotte Krautlarger

January 25, 1936 - January 14, 2021

Charlotte Belle Krautlarger entered the gates of heaven on January 14, 2021. As a faithful follower of Christ, Charlotte spoke the gospel to almost everyone she met. She read her bible daily and faithfully prayed for her loved ones. Charlotte was born on January 25, 1936 in Oklahoma City. She lived in the OKC area until she married Edward Krautlarger in 1956 and began traveling with his job. She lived in many different cities while raising her family, but her favorite adventure was living in Taiwan. There she learned to cook authentic Chinese food and became famous among friends and family for her 12 course Chinese dinners.

Charlotte loved her family and they loved her dearly in return. She was happily married to Edward for 50 years before he passed away in 2007. She was a wonderful Mother to her daughters and Gran to her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is survived by her daughters Nancy McGee and Sharon (Terry) Allen. Grandchildren Lindy (Dan) Duncan, Amy (Shawn) Deatherage, Chris (Angela) Allen and Jenna (Steven) Richardson. Great grandchildren Cortland, Bentley, Gwen, Lincoln and Logan.

Family graveside services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday, January 20, 2021 at Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens, 8701 Northwest Expressway, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Services will be livestreamed on the Wilson Little Facebook page.
