Charlotte Schumacher was born in St. Anthony Hospital in Amarillo, Texas on August 7, 1942. She was the first born of five children to Oleda Heiman Schumacher and Andrew J. (Andy) Schumacher. Charlotte was raised on the family farm and after graduating Nazareth High School, moved to Dimmitt, Texas where she met and married L. D. (Corky) Rentfro. Charlotte and Corky worked for General Telephone Company (GTE) both as employees and private contractors all over Texas and Oklahoma before settling in Purcell, Oklahoma where both their children, Tressa Rentfro McGill and Trigg Rentfro graduated high school. Charlotte continued to serve at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church for many years and saw a need to assist raising young children in Purcell and surrounding areas. She opened Charlotte's Web Day care where she and her staff helped raise many kids in the late 1980's and Charlotte continued to keep in touch with many family and friends from Nazareth, Texas throughout her whole life. George and Charlotte were reunited and married on November 2, 2013 and lived in Brownwood, Texas. Charlotte continued serving her community at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Brownwood on various boards and events, as well as a teacher of rights of religious (RCA) classes, Brownwood Kiwanis club, Brownwood Boys and Girls club, and many other various organizations.

“ Charlotte came into the lives of George's children a couple of years after our mom had passed in 2011. We will be forever grateful to Charlotte for sharing her love with our dad and his family. Charlotte was easy to laugh and had fun teasing us the very few times her Oklahoma teams defeated our Texas teams. Charlotte was proud of her family. Charlotte often spoke about how much she enjoyed teaching religious education and sharing her knowledge of God with youngsters. There is a special place in Heaven for Charlotte. Rest in Peace Charlotte, you served God well. The Huseman Children.
