“ Cody's Mom and I were pregnant together. Cody was born and I had Brad a few months later. From that moment they were best friends. They spent most everyday together growing up. They were always like brothers. Dressing up like cowboys, being pulled down the sidewalk in a wagon by their big sisters. Cody went on many vacations with us. We went to Destin once and right after midnight they come running through our room and jumped off the second floor balcony into the resort pool! They always had an onery plan up their sleeves. Most of all I remember how kind and loving Cody was, he was like family to us and he deeply loved his girls. I loved it when he'd call me his Second Mom. In the past few years he tiled my kitchen floor and put in a new shower for us. We have constant reminders of him in our home. He will be greatly missed and always remembered with love!❤️
