

Dale Lee Pope

October 20, 1951 - March 13, 2014

Dale Lee Pope, age 62 of Tecumseh, passed away Thursday, March 13, 2014 at his home. Dale was born October 20, 1951 in Purcell, OK, the oldest of 3 children born to George Lee Pope and Catherine (Frankenberg) Pope. He was raised in Wayne and attended Wayne Schools, graduating in 1969. Dale then attended the Oklahoma State University where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Education. Dale began his career teaching in Western Oklahoma. He worked several years as a Vocation Agriculture Teacher, before moving back to Washington, where he taught, and served as school Principal. During this time, he returned to school and received his Master's Degree in Education. Dale married Judy Ann Andrews from Washington on June 17, 1994. They made their home there for a short time before moving to Tecumseh. Dale accepted a position as Superintendent at Pleasant Grove Schools; a position he remained in until his retirement. Dale loved people and his love for his animals only fueled his passion for attending livestock shows. He enjoyed visiting and sharing his experiences. In his spare time, he liked fishing in his stocked pond. Dale was an avid collector and would take on all sorts of collectibles and just "stuff". He will be dearly missed!
