

Dolores Scott

June 20, 1934 - April 11, 2024

Dolores Scott, age 89, died on April 11, 2024 at Sunset Estates in Purcell, Oklahoma (previously of Washington, OK) . She was born in Lexington, Oklahoma on June 20, 1934. Dolores attended Lexington and Purcell Schools before moving to Washington in grade school where she graduated from Washington High School in 1952. Dolores moved to Wichita, Kansas and was employed as secretary to the Shipping Department Foreman at Beech Aircraft. It was at Beech Aircraft where she met Jim Jones who swept her off her feet. He was a crew chief of engine inspection one building away from the shipping department. Dolores and Jim were married January 13, 1954 at the First Baptist Church in Washington, Oklahoma. To this union two children were born, a daughter, Terrye Lee and a son James Edward (Eddy).

The family moved to Oklahoma in 1962. Dolores was employed by Roy Wilson Manufacturing for 26 1/2 years as a secretary to Roy Wilson and Office Manager. Dolores was a dedicated mother. She loved attending her children's school activities and ball games and rarely missed an event or ball game. She served as F.H.A. Mother and F.F.A. Mothers Club president and as a parent Boy Scout and Girl Scout volunteer. She was very devoted to her grandchildren and loved having them for overnight visits, entertaining them at her pool, and traveling with them near and far. She adored them all and thanked God daily for her many blessings.

After retiring from Roy Wilson Manufacturing, she worked part time for Purcell Automotive, Marcum's Nursery, the McClain County Treasurer and the McClain County Election Board. She loved working part time, but her first love was her family and her home. Dolores married Sterling F. Scott April 25, 1991 in Las Vegas, Nevada. The couple continued to work part time and traveled frequently. Dolores was a member of First Baptist Church in Washington. She was also a member of the FCE Club of Washington, as project chairman and former member of the Women of the Moose #208 in Norman where she held the office of Guide for one term and earned an academy of friendship degree. Survivors include her Aunt, Deana Page of Lexington; Daughter, Terrye (Jones) Dewey and husband David Nowak of Norman; Daughter-in-law, Teresa Jones of Wayne; Grandchildren: Jessica (Jones) Bates and husband Rick of Wayne, David Dewey and wife Clare Fletcher of Sydney, Australia, Michele (Jones) Caldwell and husband Derek of Wayne, Julie (Jones) Sharp and husband Brian of Wayne, and Caroline Dewey and partner Ethan Sobczak of Washington; Great-grandchildren: Emyrson Johnson, Dorothy Fletcher Dewey, Adrian Jones, Easton Sharp, Swayze Sharp and Bonus Great-grandchildren: Adara Bates, Avah Bates, Joel Caldwell, Ashtynn Caldwell, Carrie Caldwell, Madilyn Sharp; Bonus Great-great-grandchild Kairen Caldwell.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lois and Woody Killgore; husbands, James P. (Jim) Jones and Sterling F. Scott; and her beloved son, James Edward (Eddy) Jones. www.wilsonlittle.com In lieu of flowers donations can be made to The First Baptist Church of Washington.

“ I believe I last saw cousin Dolores at her 70th birthday party at her home in Washington, June 2004. (see picture) I remember going to visit her family at their house near Johnson School when I was a kid and playing with her son Eddy. Their home always seemed so neat and clean! She was quite a wonderful lady.
