

Eddie Alton Hall

December 19, 1954 - August 29, 2025

Eddie Alton Hall, age 70 of Stratford, passed away Friday, August 29, 2025. Born December 19, 1954 in Wynne, AR, he was the baby of 5 children born to Everett Lee Hall and Alberta Maxine (Thomas) Hall. He was raised in Maysville and attended school there, graduating with the Warrior's Class of 1973. Eddie immediately went to work driving a truck. He logged in countless miles, traveling the country and he genuinely enjoyed life on the road. He returned to school where he studied Heat & Air, but his heart was in the cab of his truck. Eddie contracted with the US Military during Iraq, hauling fuel and other equipment. By chance, he met a young lady named Gina Nacua. They fell in love and were married; October 14, 2003 in Las Vegas. They made their home in Brookland, TX before settling back home in Oklahoma near Stratford. When he wasn't working, Eddie enjoyed golf, and he never missed an opportunity to spend the day fishing. He was always learning, a jack-of-all trades and lived for the open road. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and a true friend. He will be dearly missed! He was preceded in death by: his parents, Everett and Maxine Hall; sister Alta Perigo; brothers, Leslie "Bud" Hall and Jimmy Earl Hall and brother-in-law, Bobby Perigo.

Eddie is survived by: his wife Gina Hall of the home; son Chris Hall of Kyle, TX; sister Betty Brady and husband Vernon Brady of Purcell; Nephews, Jeff Perigo and wife Shelley of Purcell, Steve Perigo and wife Dawn of Purcell, Craig Perigo and wife Trina of Purcell, Nathan Brady and wife Sandy of Purcell, Seth Brady of Norman, Wade Hall of California, John Hall of Chickasha, OK, Robert "Bob" Hall of Okla. City, Vernon Hall of Tulsa, Kevin Hall and wife Angie of Tulsa, Gary Hall of Tulsa and Marshal Hall of Tulsa, and a host of other family and friends.

Funeral Services are scheduled for 2:00 P.M. Thursday, September 4, 2025 at Little's Chapel. Burial will follow at the Hillside Cemetery. www.wilsonlittle.com
