King and together they raised a daughter, Vicki. During the mid to late 60's Gerald was working on the pipeline and the young family found themselves living in over 30 states before settling in Oklahoma City. In the early 1970's Frances began working in property management, primarily with the FAA. She loved her work and made friends all over the United States, but by her mid-forties she longed for change and adventure. Fran fell in love with Bob Perez and relocated to Guam in 1987. She loved island life and went back to work in property management for Six D Enterprises. She made many lifelong friends in Guam. Guam always held a special place for her, but in 1998 she longed to get stateside to be closer to family. Fran relocated to Tiburon, CA in 1998 and worked as the General Manager of the Tiburon Lodge until her retirement in 2004. After retiring, she moved to Oklahoma, settling in Newcastle to be near Vicki and her grandchildren. Fran traveled the world over, visiting Europe several times, China, Japan, Indonesia and the Philippines to name a few. She always
