

Guy Clayborn Willis Jr.

November 26, 1946 - June 1, 2014

Guy Clayborn Willis Junior, age 67, of Washington, passed away Sunday, June 1st, 2014. He was born November 26, 1946 son of Guy Clayborn Sr. and Mary Edith Willis. He grew up and graduated high school in Washington, Oklahoma. He served in the United States Army and then re-enlisted in the Reserves during the Vietnam War. He graduated from Central State University with a B.A. in Business and returned to Washington, Oklahoma where he raised his family and worked as a Vice-President of Sales for Berry Plastics. Clay was a beloved father, husband, grandfather and friend. The magic he brought to this life can never be duplicated but he would be honored if it would continue and attempt to be replicated by those who knew and loved him. He loved laughter, English bulldogs, Texas football, making people laugh and being with those he cherished. Because he believed in blessing people in secret, only in the next life will we ever know the depth of his generosity and acts of loving kindness. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Kim Jurhee Willis, on July 4, 1978, his father, Guy Clayborn Willis, Sr. in 1989, his mother, Mary Edith Willis in 2005, and his son, Guy Clayborn Willis III on February 9th, 2014. He is survived by his daughter and his son-in-law, Le and Lindsey Andrews, his daughter and son-in-law, Brian and Laura Barefoot, his wife, Norma Jean Lindsey, his sister and brother-in-law, Amelia and Bill Campbell of Norman, his brother and sister-in-law Charlie and Theresa Willis of Washington, Oklahoma; his nieces Miche and Roy Weber and Mike and Brandi Coleman; his nephews Tommy and Jerry Willis, his sister-in-law and brother-in-law Dan and Jimmie Wiesel of Moore, Oklahoma, his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Eddie and Norman Lindsey of Tuttle, Oklahoma, He was idolized by his beloved grandchildren, Alazar Clayton and Ruta Andrews of Oklahoma City and Finley Marie Willis of Moore. His life will be celebrated on June 7, 2014 at 11:00a.m. at the Union Hill Baptist Church in Purcell, Oklahoma and his body will be laid to rest in Washington Cemetery.
