

Ida "Bernice" Murrah

August 2, 1939 - October 29, 2025

Bernice Murrah age 86 of Lexington, passed away at her home on October 29, 2025. Ida Bernice Murrah was born to Delbert Henry Brown and Ida Lee Brown (Peltier) on August 2, 1939 in Trousdale, OK. She grew up there and attended school, graduating with the Bison Class of 1957. She married the love of her life, a young cowboy named Ray Doyle Murrah on May 15, 1958 in Purcell, OK. They made their home in Lexington where they raised their only daughter, Tammy. She worked for General Telephone as a switchboard operator for several years, and then worked as Secretary for both Case Managers and later the Psychologist at LARC. She was a hard worker and homemaker who loved caring for her family. Bernice was a devoted Christian and read her bible faithfully, and was a long-time member of the Rose Hill Pentecostal Church of God. She was a beloved wife and mother who will be dearly missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents Ida and Delbert Brown. Her brother Charles Brown, brothers-in-law Sam Fender, Roy Robinett and Phil McMillan. Her niece Donna Sue Brown, Sisters-in-law Barbara Brown and Judy Brown, her son-in-law Richard Miller, and husband Ray Murrah.

She is survived by her daughter Tammy of Lexington. Her siblings Billy Brown of Wanette, Donnie Brown and wife Marsha of McCloud, Linda Parker and husband Glen of Lexington, Wanda Robinett of Noble, Brenda Fender of Pickett, and Tina McMillan of Lexington. She also leaves behind numerous nieces and nephews, and several members of Ray's family.

Graveside services are scheduled for 11:00 am Monday November 3, 2025 at Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, Oklahoma.
