

James Edward Warren

December 8, 1936 - December 31, 2025

Jim Warren age 89 of Kingston passed away on December 31, 2025. James Edward Warren was born on December 8, 1936 in Longview, Texas to Albert Frederick and Lillian Williams. Jim and his mother soon moved to Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, where he grew up and attended school. Jimmy spent his working years as a union concrete finisher, he was skilled at his trade and it served him well. Jimmy loved the outdoors, he enjoyed fishing and hunting, and was even a certified scuba diver. After his retirement, he moved to Lake Texhoma, and has called it home for over thirty years. He liked to play a good hand of cards, shoot pool, and listen to classic country and western music. He was a beloved father, brother, uncle, and grandpa who will be dearly missed. Jim was preceded in death by his parents, and his wife Voncill.

He is survived by his children Bequeta Jones of Kingston, Bobby Jones and wife Patty of Wanette, Ron Charlow of Newalla, Don and Donna Charlow of Newalla, and Barbara Hargis and husband Mark of Kingston. He also leaves behind his sisters Chris and Debbie, numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

Funeral services are scheduled for 2:00 pm January 7, 2026, at Little's Chapel, Wilson-Little Purcell, with burial to follow at Lexington Cemetery.

“Dad when you and mom got together you showed us what it was like having a true dad in our life. The gift you gave us from that was priceless. Even when you and mom wasn't together you still was apart of our lives. We will miss you greatly and love you dearly. Love Always, Genna and Sonya ❤️🙏 RIP Dad
