“ My heart goes out to all his family. He was a wonderful friend. He will be greatly missed. We talked on the phone about once a month but he was so caring. The last time I spoke to him, I really couldn't hardly talk because I had called him to let him know that my precious sister had just passed away October 4th. He called me back later that day to give his condolence but I was so upset I couldn't really have much of a conversation I wish I would have.....now.God Bless You..... Terry Stephens
