

Johnny Lee Embry

February 11, 1956 - January 21, 2025

Johnny Embry age 68 of Lexington, passed away on January 21, 2025. Johnny Lee Embry was born on February 11, 1956 in Norman, Oklahoma to Donnie Vester Embry and Rosa Lee Embry (White). He grew up in the Corbett community, and attended school in Lexington. Johnny held several jobs before he found his true calling in the kitchen. He was a cook for most of his working years, turning out hot meals at Josph Harp Correctional Facility, Lexington Nursing Home, and Ruby's in Purcell. He loved making pies, and cooking in his own kitchen at home for his family. When he wasn't working, Johnny loved to fish anywhere he could. He coached softball for his girls when they were young, and loved to spend time with his family. Johnny was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather who will be dearly missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents Donnie Embry and Rosa Bryen; his step-dad, William Bryen. His sister Linda Madden and brother Coy Embry.

Johnny is survived by his wife Brenda of the home. His children Genna Hightower of Slaughterville, Melissa Perry and husband David of Seminole, Shawna Galaviz of Purcell, Cassie Drury of Moore, Tracey Morris and husband Mike of Mustang, and John Hill and wife Jessica of Washington. His siblings Donnie Embry of Purcell, Steve Embry of Lexington, David Embry of Wayne, and Cathy Graves of Needville, TX. Johnny also leaves behind eighteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Viewing will be held on Friday January 24, 2025 at Wilson-Little Purcell from 9:00am to 7:00pm.

Tribute Wall

“ Sorry for your loss. I never knew him as well as the rest of the family. Please know that I am thinking of you during your time of grief. I will be praying for y'all.

Ruthie Powers - February 01, 2025 at 09:09 AM

“ Araceli Gazga lit a candle in memory of Johnny Embry

Araceli Gazga - January 22, 2025 at 11:20 PM