

Judy Brown

December 3, 1940 - February 5, 2025

Judy Brown age 84, passed away on February 5, 2025 in Norman, OK. Judy Kay Miller was born on December 3, 1940 in Lexington, OK to J.C. Miller and Juanita Miller (Rogers). She grew up in the Lexington area and attended school in Tribbey. After high school Judy attended beauty school to become a hair dresser and stylist. She primarily worked out of her home, though she spent several years in area salons. She enjoyed helping her clients look their best, and always loved to catch up with them while they were in her chair. After retiring from the hair business, Judy spent 20 years working at the USPS training center in housekeeping. No matter what she did, or where she went, Judy was always well put together, elegant, accessorized, and simply fancy. She had an eye for anything with bling and loved to shop. She loved making trips to the casino, and traveling to places like Arkansas and Florida with her family. She doted on her boys, and always cooked them their own favorite pie at the holidays. She liked watching Gun Smoke and Two and a Half Men on TV, and could grow the most beautiful roses and hibiscus flowers you've ever seen. Judy was a beloved mother and grandmother who will be dearly missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents J.C. Miller and Juanita Peltier. Her husband Charles Brown. Her siblings Sandi Richardson, Ronnie Peltier, and Calvin Peltier, and her granddaughter Taylor Brown.

She is survived by her sons Ronnie Brown of Norman, Jimmy Brown and wife Becky of Paoli, and Larry Brown and wife Aimee of Norman. Her brother Bobby Peltier of Lexington, nine grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Graveside services are scheduled for 2:00pm Monday February 10, 2025 at Chappel Hill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you'd consider donating to Rose Hill Pentecostal Church in Lexington.
