

Kay L. LaFond

November 22, 1940 - November 18, 2021

Kay L. LaFond, age 80 of Wayne and formerly of Clark County, Washington, passed away unexpectedly of Thursday, November 18, 2021, at OU Medical Center. Kay Laura Nixon was born November 22, 1940 in Grandview, Washington, the youngest of 2 children born to Alexander Valentine Nixon and Edna Rhoda (Inlow) Nixon. She was raised in the Yakima Valley and attended school in Prosser. Kay was an amazing athlete, and roping was always her passion. She trick roped and trick rode for stock contractor John Van Belle. She competed in breakaway roping, team roping and barrel racing. She married Buck Mosley, and they welcomed two children, son John and daughter, Sandi. Kay continued competing and riding, working in feed lots and raising her young children. Kay later remarried, to Jerry LaFond, and they made their home in the Amboy area. She was very creative, and designed custom tack and also did leather work for her business, Cascade View Tack. Throughout all her years, Kay loved anything and everything to do with horses. She gave lessons and helped sponsor many local kids who dreamed of competing. Kay enjoyed spending time with her friend and companion, Spook Frazier. In March of this year, she moved to Oklahoma to be with her daughter, Sandi.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Jerry LaFond; parents, Alexander and Edna Nixon; brother, Gene Nixon and adoptive brother, Frank Perry .

Kay is survived by: her daughter, Sandi Emond and Bart Collins, of Wayne,

OK; son, John Mosley and wife Suzie of Bridgeport, SD; Grandson, Josh Mosley and wife Seanne King Mosley of Sioux Falls, SD; 5 great grandchildren, several nephews, special friend, Spook Frazier; special nephew, Duane Nokelby and wife Lisa of Fargo, ND, and many friends. Special Thanks to her dear friends, Liz Woods, Roger and Becky McDougal and Kim Hudson for all the help they provided to her.

A memorial service is being planned in Washington State this spring. Send online condolences @ www.wilsonlittle.com.