“Offering my deepest condolences to the family of Kaye Kelly. As you cherish the infinite number of beautiful memories of Kaye let there be a reflection upon the time when sickness, death, and sorrow will be past conditions! Earth has no pain that heaven cannot heal. Kaye can peacefully rest knowing that she was a most outstanding servant of God, her church, her family, and her community. Grief can be so very hard but our special memories are helpers for coping. Please hold tight to each of those memories. As a family continue to lean on each other for support and with placing your trust in God for strength needed for endurance. Your precious loved one is at peace with her devoted and loving husband, her beautiful and loving parents, her loving brother affectionately referred to as "Butch", along with many other loved ones. I can only imagine how happy that she is being in the presence of our Almighty Lord and Savior. It is such a beautiful thought to me when I think of how for so many years Kaye heard about God, read about God, served him, and had loved him so deeply. And now she is being rewarded with being in his presence and have earned her beautiful crown. Kaye was a wonderful person. I will always have so many regrets that after my retirement I never did get to have the special lunch with her that I had planned due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Blessings to each of her family members. And may many blessing be rested upon my dear friends for nearly thirty years her little sisters Brenda and Linda.

“ Kaye was a great lady and friend. She will be greatly missed. I loved when her & JW lived down the street from me. A funny story was we kept opening each other's garage doors because our remotes were programmed the same until we figured out what was happening. Rest in peace Kaye. (say Hi to my mom)
