He married young, to Maralyn Martin and together they raised three children; son Paul Ross and daughters, Becky and Veronica. Larry Dale settled in the Goldsby area in the early 1980's. At a very young age, Larry developed a passion for automobiles. He was an excellent mechanic and owned and operated Arms Auto Service for many years. At one time, Larry even owned a service station. He eventually sold his businesses, but he never really retired. Larry was a hard worker. And whether it was working on the farm or managing his storage units, he stayed busy.
