

Linda Carol Swafford

February 11, 1945 - November 1, 2013

Linda Carol Swafford age 68 of Purcell passed away Friday, November 01, 2013 at Baptist Hospital in Oklahoma City. She was born February 11, 1945 in Purcell, OK. Linda was the 2nd child of four children born to Burl Wayne Carr and Erma Mae (O'Harro) Carr. She grew up in Purcell and graduated from Purcell High School with the class of 1963. Later that same year she married the love of her life, a young man from Purcell by the name of Bill Swafford. They were married on November 16, 1963 in Purcell and together raised two children, DeAnne and Mike. In her early years Linda worked many years at Sherri Classic dress factory in Purcell. She later went to work for the City of Purcell and worked a number of years as the City Clerk and Payroll Clerk. Because of a health problem she retired early in 1999. Linda was a fabulous seamstress who enjoyed sewing and making clothes for her children and her family. She loved working with her hands, being in the outdoors, gardening, doing yard work and working with arts and crafts. Most of all Linda enjoyed being a wife, mother and grandmother.
