

Lisa Janea Hadley

August 20, 1960 - May 10, 2022

Lisa Hadley, age 61 of Purcell, passed away Tuesday, May 10, 2022, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Lisa Janea Wells was born August 20, 1960 in Purcell, OK, the younger of two children born to Robert Glen Wells and Barbara June (Howerton) Kelley. She was raised in Lexington and attended school there, graduating with the Bulldog Class of 1978. She started working in the car business, an inherited trait she learned from her mother and step father, Kenneth Kelley. At the time, she was working at Al Salyer Olds/Cadillac/Nissan where she trained under her mother. She eventually moved to neighboring dealership, Schofield Hyundai, to become the office manager. She had met a young man while working at Al Salyers. His name was Randy Hadley and he worked as the service manager there. They shared so much in common, and were quick to become friends. This eventually led to more, and on May 20, 1987, Lisa and Randy were married on the front steps of the Schofield dealership. They made their home in Purcell, where together they raised two children, Whytne and Wyatt. On June 5, 1989, Lisa returned to work, but this time for the City of Lexington. She really blossomed in this role, and served the community in a variety of roles, and most recently as Public Works Clerk. She greatly enjoyed her work, but most importantly, appreciated the flexibility her work and work family extended her, to spend more time with her children and grandchildren. Lisa was all about her family. She very rarely missed an activity or school function, and was their biggest fan. Lisa loved the lake and looked forward to weekend get aways there. She loved riding jet skis and off-road adventures on the side by sides. Lisa loved music, and attended many concerts and camping trips with Randy, his brother Russell and her best friend Kim Hadley. She was the biggest fan of the Foo Fighters. Lisa cherished Randy, her children and was the proud 'MawMaw' of Brody, Presley and Hattie June. She loved her fur babies Jedi, Leia, Abbey, Jack, Gracie and Wister, as they were like her children. She was selfless, always thinking of others, and in spite of her struggles the last few years, Lisa remained determined and strong, and always kept a great attitude. She will be dearly missed!

She was preceded in death by: her father, Glen Wells; step father, Kenneth Kelley and sister, Lawana Lopez.

Lisa is survived by: her husband Randy Hadley; daughter, Whytne Hallmark and husband Kyle of Stratford; son Wyatt Hadley of Purcell; mother, Barbara Kelley of Lexington; brother Kent Wells of Lexington; sisters, Marie Drivere of Norman and Tonja Veatch of Palisade, CO; her pride and joy, grandchildren, Brody, Presley and Hattie June and a host of other family and friends.

Funeral Services are scheduled for 2:00 P.M. Friday, May 13, 2022, at Little's Chapel, Wilson Little. Interment will follow at the Lexington Cemetery. Send online condolences @ www.wilsonlittle.com.

“My first memories that come to mind of Lisa was in high school. I was envious of her flirty, short skirts, her self-confidence, her adorable figure and her way with the boys. Then, in Oct. 2019, Lisa hired me as her housekeeper, even though I informed her up front of the bogus protection orders filed against me, 2018, the bogus charges filed against me as a result of those lies, same time, the guilty protected by a corrupt justice system. Lisa said to me, quote, "I trust you.", unquote, trusting me with her house, the care of her fur babies, their medications, even baby sitting them while her husband Randy, her son Wyatt and Lisa went on vacations, having fun, camping, trips to the lake. Today, I still envy her. I left a note for Lisa on the kitchen counter on one occasion, telling her how I felt, that she is the most beautiful woman I have ever known, so strong, so brave. One of the boys. A fighter. A soldier. SSGT Barry Sadler said it best in his song, Ballad of the Green Berets. Lisa has wings. She's a 3, one of the good guys. Right there with my uncle, Fireman Warren E. Tilson, Engine Company 61, A Platoon who died in the Watts Riots, 1965. Lisa is a hero." ~ Terry Tilson

“ Lisa and I did pretty much the same job...she with the City of Lexington and I with the City of Purcell. We shared tips about software and general policy. She was always a joy to talk to and was just and all around great lady ❤️😭
