

Lois Bakhaus

July 15, 1929 - October 24, 2019

Lois Bakhaus, age 90 of Alameda, CA and formerly of Slaughterville, OK, passed away Thursday, October 24, 2019. Lois Wanda Eustace was born July 15, 1929 in Texas, the 2nd of 4 children born to Thomas Quay Eustace and Nona Rhea (Rhoades) Eustace. She spent her early childhood in the Wichita Falls area and later Ft. Worth where she finished school. Lois married young, to Louis Nathan "Hib" Hibler, and to this union 3 sons, Kenneth, Paul and Earl were born. When the boys were young, they moved to Okla. City. Lois worked as a beautician for many years in OKC. Some years later, she married John Elliot and they moved to the Dibble area. Lois was a woman of great faith, and attended church regularly. She especially loved old gospel music. In 2005, she married Wayne Bakhaus, and spent the last years of their lives on a small acreage near Slaughterville. Lois was an excellent cook, and an even better hostess. She looked forward to hosting big family get togethers for birthdays and during the holidays. She was a loving wife and mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She will be dearly missed!
