“ My girl! You will forever be missed. My first real friend when we moved to Oklahoma! Justin always said you and I were twins! We acted just alike when we were together! The laughs, the late nights, the deep talks, Sam's club, our babies enjoying sleepovers together, you giving me a puppy and me giving you one but you dropped her back off when I wasn't home, dancing in the living room, you running through the living room because there was too much seasoning on the chicken, singing, showing eachother songs we listened to and hoping to find new ones we liked, rollerskating after an ice storm, ordering a pizza and going to the school to get the babies out of the house. We have had so many good times together and with our babies! I will forever miss you and be so thankful for the time we got together. You were such a bright light. You didn't deserve this. May God wrap his loving arms around your family while the grieve this tragic loss. Makayla, I hope you have been enjoying heaven. We love you and are missing you so much down here. Rest in peace sweet girl! We love you, forever. ❤️

“ Makayla and I met at TCIM, a dreaded call center we both worked at. She was the first friend I made after moving to Norman when my parents split up. For years we were inseparable. She made the transition of moving to a new town easier for me. She was a great friend to me and she loved my children so much. She was a wonderful aunt and loved her nephews so so much. I didn't get the chance to see her as a mother, but I know she was the best. Her love for children was apparent in everything she did. I know she's finally with her daughter and that she's so happy. Makayla is whole again. I pray for her family to have peace and that God wraps his arms around them through this horrible time.

“ The beauty of your family shines through in this difficult time. So much strength and endurance.. I'm sure Makayla is proud! No words can express your pain, but please remember God already knows and He is with you all.. John 14:27
"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."
May you all feel the presence of the Holy Spirit and be comforted and experience the peace only He can give. God bless your family!
