“Mrs. Mildred was so easy to love. She had such a big heart!! She was so generous in her love and hugs and compliments to others. I have many fun memories from the times we spent together. It made me laugh how free spirited and independent she was!!! My kids still talk about how she let them hit golf balls in her backyard and made them lemonade. Ava remembers her giving her a bunch of candy. :) I am so sorry that she's gone. She will be missed!!

“I had the privilege of meeting her at Valir Therarpy and talking to her I told her I sit with the elderly, not long after that she broke her wrist and called me to sit with her, I was more than happy too, it didn't take long to just love her to pieces. Even after I stopped sitting I've always loved her.
