

Naolma Ann Lamirand

November 12, 1933 - July 12, 2022

Ann Lamirand age 88 of Wanette, passed away July 12, 2022. Naolma Ann McElhiney was born on November 12, 1933 in Wanette to O'Dell McElhiney and Evelyn McElhiney (Jackson). She grew up in the area and attended school in Shawnee. She fell in love with Loy Lamirand and they were married on July 17, 1954. They made their home in Oklahoma City and on September 27, 1958 they were blessed with daughter Denise. In 1973 Ann and her family moved back to Wanette and made it their home ever since. Ann always planted a big vegetable garden, and sewed Barbie clothes for her daughter and her friends. While living in the city, she enjoyed bowling, and for a time she was a lunch lady at Putnam City Schools. Ann loved spending time with her husband, they often went and listened to live music at various senior citizen's centers in the area. She loved to drive their old truck and shift the gears whenever she could. Ann was a member of the Church of Christ, a caring mother, wife, friend, and loved her sweet kitty cats.

Ann was preceded in death by her Husband, Loy Lamirand. Her sister Beverly Beasley, Half Brothers Harold Wayne Brown and Richard McElhiney, and Half-sister Karen Stephen. And her grandchildren, James Loy McDonald and Richard Lee McDonald Jr.

She is survived by her daughter Denise of the home. Her half siblings Barbara Young of Blue Spring, Missouri, and Tommy McElhiney and wife Joyce of Augusta, Kansas. Her granddaughter Kim Gilleland of Oklahoma City, great grandchildren Tyler Gilleland and wife Martha of Seattle, Washington, Jacob Gilleland and wife Cassidy of Oklahoma City, great-great grandson Chance, and great-great granddaughter Alaina. She also leaves behind 10 nieces and nephews, niece Mary Phillips, great niece Shala Phillips, great nephew Zack Phillips, and great-great niece Karman.
