

Naomi Elledge

August 7, 1918 - August 21, 2012

Naomi Elledge, age 94, of OKC, passed away Tuesday, August 21, 2012. Sylvia Naomi Hoff was born August 7, 1918 in Purcell, OK, the older of 2 children born to Thedor Hoff and Marie (Banks) Hoff. She was raised in the Purcell and Pauls Valley area, attending school there. After school, she began working G.F. Wacker 5 & 10 Store. She later moved to Houston for a time where she worked at Joske's Department Store selling cosmetics products. Naomi longed for home and returned to OKC. She began selling cosmetics for John A. Brown, retiring after more than 29 years with the company. Naomi married her one true love, David Elledge Sr., on November 26, 1980 in OKC. Naomi loved the Lord and together, she and David remained active in the Trinity Nazarene Church. Naomi taught Caravans, cooked for Wednesday night meals and served as a door greeter for many years. She and David also worked with Love Links and Mobile meals. Naomi cherished her family, and especially her granddaughters, Shannon and Lacy and her great granddaughters, Mayson and Paisley. She was an avid reader, loved a good game of Mexican train dominos and working in her flower garden. She enjoyed traveling in their motor home and her greatest joy was playing makeup with Mayson and Paisley. She will be dearly missed! She was preceded in death by: Her parents, Theodore and Marie Hoff and Her brother, Clyde 'Bud' Hoff. Naomi leaves behind: Her husband, David Elledge Sr., of the home; 2 sons, David Elledge Jr. and wife Sharon of OKC and Michael Elledge of OKC; Her granddaughters, Shannon Hicks and husband Parry and Lacy

Elledge; Her great granddaughters, Mayson Elizabeth Hicks and Paisley Naomi Hicks; 2 cousins, Ramsey Spoon of San Antonio and Jeanie Moses of Pauls Valley and many other loving family & friends. Funeral Services are scheduled for 10:00 A.M. Saturday, August 25, 2012, at the Trinity Nazarene Church in OKC. Burial will follow at Resthaven Memory Gardens.
