

Pamala Ruth Wallace

December 1, 1955 - January 20, 2022

Pamala Wallace, age 66 of Lexington, passed away Thursday, January 20, 2022, at the Norman Regional Healthplex. Pamala Ruth Newton was born December 1, 1955 in Fort Worth, Texas. The daughter of a career military man, she moved many times as a child and lived in various places all over the world. By the time she reached high school, Pam was in Madrid, Spain, and she graduated from Madrid American High School in 1974. She married a career military man named James "Jim" Wallace in January of 1983. They settled near Lexington where they raised 4 children, Clarissa, Kelly, Nathan, and Shirley. Pam began working as a disciplinary judge at LARC, and later as a correctional officer at Joseph Harp Correctional Facility. She retired after more than 21 years of dedicated service. Away from work, Pam enjoyed reading and working puzzles. She was a gifted artist who had recently started diamond art painting. She liked to crochet and quilt, and she shared her many talents with her family and friends. Pam was an excellent cook, and will be forever remembered for her chocolate cake. She will be dearly missed!

She was preceded in death by: her husband James Wallace, daughter Kelly Donnell and her sister Diane Leezdaw.

Pam is survived by: her parents, Bill and Shirley Newton of Macomb; Children, Clarissa Robison of Norman, Shirley Chesser of Lexington and Nathan Wallace and wife Donna of Goldsby; sister, Susan McInturff and husband

“ I loved when I got to stay the night at Shirley's house!! Pam really was found of her kids and loved making them happy. She was a cheer mom and always there for us girls!! But the best thing I loved about Pam was her painting. If we could away our selves to the shop... She would share her techniques with me without Shirley knowing. Love you guys and I know you will be watching us cheer girls from above.
