

Paul Graham

December 24, 1945 - January 26, 2024

Paul Graham age 78 of Kingston, formerly of Washington, passed away in Norman on January 26, 2024. Paul Francis Graham was born to John Francis Graham and Leona May Graham (Simson) on December 24, 1945 in Longrun, Missouri. Paul's family moved to a farm in Washington, Ok when he was three and it was home ever since. He grew up helping on the farm, attended Washington schools, and graduated with the Warrior class of 1964. He joined the Army after graduation, and served until 1968. He married the love of his life, Peggy Brooks, on October 30, 1970 in Lexington. They first made their home in Moore, then moved back to Washinton in 1984. Paul spent most of his working years in the oil field trucking industry, and served as the yard manager for A&A Tank Truck Company before retiring. He drove a dirt track racecar for a number of years, and was a life long Dale Earnhardt fan. He raised a variety of horses for a number of years and always enjoyed working with them and watching them grow. In his free time, Paul loved being outdoors- camping, fishing, boating, and hunting coons or deer. He was an avid Waylon Jennings fan, and cheered on the Oklahoma Sooners and Dallas Cowboys every football season. The last few years of his life were spent enjoying time with friends and family in Buncomb Creek at Lake Texhoma, where he resided with his companion Kelly Hathcock. He was a beloved father and grandfather who will dearly missed.

Paul was preceded in death by his parents, John and Leona Graham. His wife of 45 years, Peggy Graham. And his siblings Versie, Dorothy, Myrtle, Mae, Glessie, and David.

He is survived by his children, David Graham and wife Laura of Washington, and Ella Mattingly of Moore. His sister, Glennie Applegarth of Norman. His grandchildren Kim Fox and Jeremy, Kristy Graham and Joe, Mark Graham, Isaac Holloway, Haley Vore, and Sara Mattingly. He also leaves behind five great grandchildren, Aiden, Karlie, Kylie, Jeremy, and J.D.

Funeral Services are scheduled for 2:00 pm Thursday February 1, 2024 at Little's Chapel, Wilson-Little Purcell, with burial to follow at Washington Cemetery.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Pauls family. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He was a big help for me when my mother, Danna Everhart, was going thru her battle with cancer. Paul has been a part of our family for over 50 years when mom met him working at Unit Parts and Paul and Peggy became good friends with our mom. I'm gonna miss our text. 😞
