Peggy grew up in Washington, OK, where she helped in house and on the farm. She graduated from Washington High School in 1948. She was a good student, enjoying Home Economics and lettering in basketball.

After graduation, she lived with her aunt and uncle, Curt and Della Melton, working at Don's Rexall Drug store in Purcell. It was at this time she met the love of her life, Cleveland Mattingly. Cleveland left for the Army and Peggy returned home to help at the farm. One year later she took a job at Bell Telephone Office in Norman. She worked here as a switchboard operator until Cleveland was home for a 30-day leave in July. It was then they married on August 6, 1953. She fully embraced military life by living at Ft. Sill, OK; Ft. Bliss, TX; Ft. Devens, MA; Bamberg & Herzogenaaurach, Germany; Ft. Bragg, NC; Fukuoka, Japan; and Ft. Meade, MD, before retiring in 1969 in Washington, OK. Together they raised 5 children: Johnny Wayne, Mark Alan, Patricia Ann, Timothy Jay, and Stephen Kirk. Peggy was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother. She was a homemaker and her greatest joy was her family. She loved helping and babysitting the grandkids, which created lifelong bonds. She will be dearly missed. One thing she enjoyed the most was sports. She attended many Washington High School events and loved her OU Sooners.

Peggy was a faithful and very active member of First Baptist Church of Washington. She taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School for over 30 years, was active in Women's Missionary Union, served as the wife of a deacon by preparing funeral dinners and delivering numerous meals to fellow church members.
