

Rick Riter

August 10, 1954 - June 10, 2012

Richard "Rick" Riter age 57 of Lexington passed away Sunday, June 10, 2012 in OKC. Rick was born on August 10, 1954 in Fort Smith, Arkansas. He was the youngest of three children born to William Sherman Riter and Oneta (Stallings) Riter. While he was growing up, his family moved many times, because his father was in the U.S. Army. Many of his younger years were spent living in Germany, Texas and Oklahoma. Rick began working for the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health in the late 1970's and was still employed by the state at the time of his death. On September 9, 1995 he married the love of his life, Linda McMurray. They made their home in Norman for many years before moving to Lexington seven years ago. Rick enjoyed being in the outdoors and living in the country. In years past, he and Linda enjoyed camping but mainly Rick just liked staying at home, being a homebody. Throughout his life he's been an avid sports fan and especially and considered an avid O.U. sports fan, he especially loved watching O.U. football and basketball. In his later years, he loved spending time with his grandsons. He was preceded in death by: Parents: Bill and Neta Riter He is survived by: Wife: Linda Riter of the home Daughter: DeAnn McNickle and husband Daniel of Edmond Brother: Larry Harris and wife Pamela of OKC Sister: Barbara Smith and husband Stanley of Edgewood, TX Three grandsons: Jordan, Zachary and Gavin Also four nephews Graveside funeral services will be 10:00 A.M.
