

Roger Dale Richardson

September 14, 1954 - March 14, 2020

Roger Dale Richardson, age 65 of Noble, passed away Saturday, March 14, 2020, at the Norman Regional Hospital. Roger Dale, named by his older brother Glenn after Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, was born September 14, 1954 in Oklahoma City. He grew up in the Norman and Noble area, even spending sometime in Lexington and attended high school in Blanchard. Throughout the years, Roger Dale worked a variety of jobs. He obtained his journeyman's license and spent more than 40 years working as a plumber, and the last several years for Hill & Company. Roger Dale was an avid sports fan. He liked watching basketball and was a huge NASCAR fan and he loved spending time outdoors in nature. He lived a simple life; he was kind and good natured and he genuinely loved people. For the last several years, he has lived in Noble with his longtime companion, Diana. He was a wonderful father and grandfather, brother, uncle and a good friend. He will be dearly missed!

He was preceded in death by:

His mother, Lillie Bennett;

Brother, Doyle McGehee and

Sister, Bobbie Smith.

He is survived by:

His daughter, Jennifer Richardson of Norman;

Son, Johnny Dale Richardson and wife Amy of Norman;

Sister, Paula Smith of Midwest City;
Two brothers, Glenn Richardson of McCloud and
Jerry Smith of Norman;
Five grandchildren, Destiny, Demetrius, Will, Brice and Emily;
One great granddaughter, Haven and
His companion, Diana Ulrich.
