

Ronald Lynn Jarman

October 18, 1963 - January 28, 2022

Ron Jarman, age 58 of Norman, passed away Friday, January 28, 2022.

Ronald Lynn Jarman was born October 18, 1963 in Norman, OK, the 3rd of 6 children born to Jack Laverne Jarman and Betty Ann (Gifford) Jarman. He was raised in Noble and attended Noble schools, graduating with the Bears Class of 1982. By chance, on a blind date, Ron met Diana Dark. He knew she was the one, and on November 7, 1992, Ron and Diana were married in Lone Grove, OK. They have always called the Noble/Norman area home, and where they raised their only son, Sam. Ron was a hard worker and a great provider. He was currently shop foreman for L & O Pump & Supply Co. in OKC. Away from work, Ron was probably hunting or fishing. He loved bluegrass music and was a long time bass guitarist. He fondly recalled his time touring with the Cannons and once playing at the White House. Ron stayed busy always, working on random projects and it was said, he was a great "fixer of things". He cherished Diana and Sam, and was a good friend to many. He will be dearly missed!

He was preceded in death by: his parents, Jack and Betty Jarman and sister, Lana Dollarhide.

Ron is survived by: his wife, Diana of the home; son, Sam Jarman and wife Kacey of OKC; Sisters, Janet Jarman of Noble and Alicia Gifford of Norman; Brothers, Jeff Jarman of Norman and Phillip Gifford of OKC; several nieces and nephews and a host of other family and friends.

“ Diana and Sam,

We are heartbroken for you both. Juanny and I are praying you feel the love around you, and are here for any need you may have.

I enjoyed watching Ron, at the rehearsal dinner for Sam and Kacey. You could see the joy, and happiness he had for his son. His gentle eyes tracking his sons movements in the room.

Much love to all of you.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Ron lived next door to us in Pauls Valley in our rent house in the mid 90's. They loved confusing the postman. Ron is my Ron's cousin. I remember when Sam was born.
