

Ronnie Chance Hobson

November 27, 1989 - September 1, 2012

Ronnie Chance Hobson age 22 of Noble, passed away Saturday September 1, 2012 in Mustang, OK, following a work related accident. Chance was born November 27, 1989 in Norman, OK. He grew up in Lexington and attended Lexington Schools, graduating with the class of 2008. As young boy, he loved the Rodeo and loved going to Rodeo's with his dad. While in high school, Chance loved playing sports and lettered in baseball, basketball and football. He also worked part time at Tyler's Furniture in Purcell, assembling and delivering furniture. On December 11, 2009, he and his true love, Paige Helling, were married in Noble. Together they raised their children; son, Ryder and daughter, Reagan. Chance began working for OG&E in February of 2011. He was a hard worker and a good provider. He cherished his family and especially loved being a dad. He was an avid sports fan. He never missed a good football or baseball game, and he favorite baseball team was the Atlanta Braves. Chance's grandparents, Clarence & Faye were very special to him when he was younger and they greatly impacted the person he had become. He was preceded in death by: His grandfather, Clarence Hoofard Chance leaves behind: His wife, Paige Hobson, and their children, Son, Ryder & Daughter, Reagan, all of the home His mother, Marianne Kennedy and husband Chad of Lexington His father, Robby Hobson of Lexington His brother, Cole Hobson of Lexington Grandparents, Lois Hoofard of Lexington Faye Henderson of Noble Jerry Hobson of Lexington Great grandmother, Eulaun Riggle of Noble Mother & Father-in-law, Robert & LeeAnn Cox of Wanette Sister-in-law, Cayla Helling of Purcell Many aunts, uncles and cousins and a host of other family and friends. Funeral Services are scheduled for 1:00 P.M. Wednesday, September 5, 2012, at the First Baptist Church of Lexington. Burial will follow at the Lexington Cemetery. Arrangements are with Wilson-Little Funeral Home in Purcell.