Roy Dale Lee age 75 of Wayne, passed away Sunday, April 10, 2016 at Norman Regional Hospital. Roy was born December 14, 1940 in Chickasha, Oklahoma. He was the 8th child of nine children born to Robert Boyd Lee and Mary L. (Bacon) Lee. Roy grew up a farm boy living in the Dibble community. As a young boy he learned how to work hard by cutting broomcorn and working in the cotton fields. He attended the Dibble schools where he graduated with the class of 1959. That same year, on December 31, 1959 in Phoenix, AZ he married the love of his life, Mary J. Bond. They remained living there for the next 18 years and together raised two sons, Randy and Darrell. Roy worked as a professional welder for 18 years while living in Phoenix, working for the Sheet Metal Union. In 1978 they moved to Eastern Oklahoma and he worked as a fabricator in a Pressure Cleaning Business. He retired in 2000 and in 2002 he and Mary moved to Lexington, to be close to their granddaughters. He only recently moved to Wayne, OK to live next to his granddaughter, Shayla Bishop and her family. Throughout his life, Roy enjoyed camping and working with wood crafts, especially making bird houses. He also enjoyed racing remote controlled cars with his sons. He enjoyed racing in competitions on indoor and outdoor race tracks. Most of all, Roy enjoyed being around his family, spending time at family get-togethers with brothers and sisters and his children and grandchildren.
