

Sandra Adkins

February 21, 1952 - August 6, 2025

Sandra Adkins, age 73 of Norman, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday July 6, 2025. Sandra Kay Cooper was born February 21, 1952 in Watonga, Oklahoma to Major Almo Cooper and Minnie Kay (Clark) Cooper. She was raised in Watonga, and attended school there, graduating with the Eagle's Class of 1970. By chance, she met a young serviceman named Tommy Gerald Adkins. They were set up on a blind date by mutually friends, and the rest as they say is history. Sandra and Tommy were married in October of 1970 and made their home in Watonga where they raised their daughters, Heather and Rachel. Sandra returned to school, and earned her Associates in Nursing; she worked for Baptist Hospital in the Burn Unit until she returned to her passion of long term care. Sandra's warm heart and compassionate manor served her well in her nursing career, and she dearly loved her patients. From Watonga to Okeene, to Stillwater and Perkins, Sandra's heart was always with her family. More recently, she moved to Norman to be closer to her daughter. Sandra was an avid reader, and never missed an opportunity to curl up with a good book. She enjoyed sewing and knitting and she shared her many talents with her family and friends. She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and a true friend. She will be dearly missed!

She was preceded in death by: her husband Tommy Gerald Adkins and her parents, Major and Minnie Cooper.

Sandra is survived by: her daughters, Heather Ray of Norman and Rachel Allbritton of Mansfield, AR; Sister, Mary Corrigan of Norman; her pride and joy, grandchildren, Kathryn Ray and Colt Allbritton and a host of beloved nieces, nephews and other friends and family.
