She was raised in Steven's Town, WI and attended Melrose-Mindoro High School, and later Western Technical College. In the early 1980's, Sharon followed her adopted father, Thomas Burns, to Oklahoma. She served faculty and students in a variety of roles for more than 16 years. When she wasn't working, Sharon enjoyed tending to her chickens and she loved all kinds of dogs. She enjoyed watching old westerns, and particularly Gunsmoke and The Rifleman. Sharon was a woman of great faith and a faithful member of the Friendly Mission Pentecostal Church of God in Lexington.
