July 5, 1974 - September 10, 2022

Shawn Deon Richardson, age 48 of Norman, passed away unexpectedly Saturday, September 10, 2022. Shawn was born July 5, 1974 in Norman to Randy Eugene Richardson and Janet Carol (Yeary) Dodd. She was raised in Noble and attended school there. She dreamed to one day be a Game Warden, and moved to Indiana to attend school at Vincennes University where she studied Wildlife Management. While in Indiana, she worked for Toyota for a few years, before moving back home to Oklahoma and settling in Norman where she worked in housekeeping and maintenance ready for area apartments. Shawn was the proud mother of son Ayden. She enjoyed traveling and seeing new places. She liked to go fishing, although she wouldn't bait her own reel, or remove the prized catch. More recently, she began dabbling in woodworking. Shawn cherished Ayden, her family and friends, and looked forward to family get togethers. She loved cooking out, and her favorite meal was the all-American hot dog. She was a wonderful mother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend, and she will be deeply missed!

She was preceded in death by: her father, Randy Richardson; sister, Debra Slater and ½ sister, Kerrie Richardson.

Shawn is survived by: her son, Ayden Davis of Noble; her mother, Janet Dodd of Noble; brother, Douglas Clagg and wife Salina of Chandler, OK; ½ sister, Rhonda Smart of Edmond, OK; Numerous aunts and uncles, nieces and “ Give Deb a hug for me. You will be missed by so many. The funniest memory I have of you is when we went to see Freddy Kruger at the movie theater. Got home and Deb went to unlock the door and it was open. We all about broke our necks trying to get back to my car. Lol Thank goodness we got in safely and took off to your moms work. We we scared to death. All was good when mom got home and checked the house I don't think any of us slept that night. Lol I love you sister! Until we meet again!
