“ You don't know me but I've swapped fabric, quilt blocks, and laughter with Sherry for many years. Her delightful sense of humor has been a resource for our group quilting retreat for years. She will be missed. God hold you in His hands Labrat. We will hold you in our hearts.

“ I have to credit Sherry in the amazing village of women chosen to raise me. She's taught me so much about living a humble life and TRUE philanthropy from her genuine servant's heart. I will forever cherish the time I spent with her & Rachel as we both were growing into young adults in her home.

“ You get to know people as your kids grow up and go to school. Then, when all the kids have grown, you lose track of people. I should have done more to stay in touch with this wonderful woman.

Sherry was kind, generous, loving, giving, and was a wonderful friend to me. She had a twinkle in her eye, and a liting laugh that made everything better.

She was a loving and proud mother to her son, Jacob, and her daughter, Rachel.

She was a gift to be treasured, and, she will be missed.
