

Sue Andrews

March 14, 1946 - June 23, 2026

Sharron “Sue” Owen Andrews age 80, of Purcell Oklahoma passed away Tuesday, June 23rd, 2026 at her home.

Sue was born March 14th, 1946 in Shawnee, Oklahoma, the third of four children born to Grady and Eunice Owen. She attended Johnson School through the 6th grade, and then completed her education at Purcell Schools. April 8th, 1965 Sue married Tommy Andrews, and they made their home in Purcell, Oklahoma. She found her happiness in being a homemaker, but also worked in in the County Clerk’s Office at McClain County Courthouse, A&A Tank Truck, and retired from the Oklahoma State Board of Engineers & Land Surveyors.

As a homemaker Sue was known for being a wonderful cook, which included her famous cinnamon rolls and homemade bread. Her favorite things in life were taking care of her kids and grandkids, spending time with her sisters, going to church, and being a servant to others.

Sue is preceded in death by her husband, Tommy Andrews, her parents Grady & Eunice Owen, one brother Tommy Owen, and one grandson Kaden Robinson.

She is survived by her son, Kevin Andrews and wife Lisa of Purcell, two daughters, Darla Andrews of Purcell, Marsha Sanders and husband Mark of Washington, grandchildren Macey Rayas and husband Chuy of Kingston, Saylor Kneis and husband Parker of Oklahoma City, Sunny Elliott and husband Aaron of Yukon, Emma, Hudson & Grady Andrews of Purcell, two great grandson's Owen Rayas and Callahan Elliott, two sisters, Phyllis Bennett of Purcell, and Beverly Price and husband Lewis of Purcell, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

We would like to thank Dr. Dye and staff with Valor Hospice, and countless others who helped us take care of our parents through this journey. It has been greatly appreciated.
