

Susan Annette Mattix

September 2, 1972 - May 23, 2026

Susan Mattix, age 53 of Lexington, passed away unexpectedly on May 23, 2026. Susan Annette Fuller was born September 2, 1972 in Trenton, Tennessee to James and Geraldine Fuller. She met the love of her life, Shannon Mattix, in 2001, and they were later married on April 11, 2003. Together they raised a son, P.J. They first made their home in Arizona, but later moved to Oklahoma looking for a fresh start. Susan worked as a school representative for the Scholastic Book Fair for many years. Her heart was always in her home, as she was a homebody. Susan had a big heart, and was always taking care of others. From feeding anyone in need, or just lending an ear to whoever needed it, Susan was always there. She cherished Shannon and P.J., and her family and friends. She will be dearly missed!

She was preceded in death by: her father, James Fuller.

Susan is survived by: her husband, Shannon and son, P.J., of the home; her mother, Geraldine Fuller of the home and a host of other family and friends.
