

Ted Allan Geyer

January 1, 2019

Ted Geyer age 57 of Lexington, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, January 01, 2019 at the Purcell Municipal Hospital. Ted Alan Geyer was born February 20, 1961 in Norman, OK, the 2nd of 4 children born to Ted C. Geyer and Carolyn June (Sullivan) Geyer. Ted was raised in Wanette and attended Wanette Schools. On a blind date, he met a young lady from Wynnewood named Jennifer Taylor. They fell in love and were married on March 18, 1992 in Texarkana. They made their home in Lexington where together they raised 4 children; son, Austin and daughters, Amber, Lindsey and Hayleigh. Ted worked alongside his dad for several years, remodeling and general construction projects. He later secured his journeyman license and worked in heating and air conditioning for a few years. When not working, Ted enjoyed his woodworking and enjoyed being outdoors. He was an avid hunter and never missed an opportunity to go fishing. Ted was a family man and especially cherished spending time with his grandchildren. He was a man of great faith and a member of the First Baptist Church in Lexington. He will be dearly missed!
